Hello NWOB members. Long time no read huh? Club officers have been busy planning this years activities. The schedule is out the draft is near and soon we will be ready for some football. Normally we are presenting a banquete this time of the year but the lousey season and tough economy made it just too much of a financial risk. With a better season this year maybe we will be back at it this time next year. Enjoy the newsletter we have a few things in the works and we look forward to you joining us and making this upcoming year a memberable one.
